

Pathways Out Programme

SUMMARY

- 1.1 The Pathways Out Programme has developed an innovative approach of profiling some of the most at risk gang members in order to identify potential intervention measures that could be taken to combat gang and youth violence. This report profiles at twelve of the most at risk gang members in the city and looks at a wide range of indicators.

RECOMMENDATION

- 2.1 To comment on the Pathways Out Programme in addressing criminal gangs activity and consider how it could be used tackle broader crime and anti-social behaviour problems in the city.

REASONS FOR RECOMMENDATION

- 3.1 Neighbourhoods Board has a statutory responsibility for crime and disorder issues.

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

- 4.1 The Pathways Out Programme is an analytical project which develops a profile of individuals involved in gang activity. It looks at who becomes engaged in gangs, identifies common links and seeks to understand why individuals have chosen such a lifestyle by focusing on some of the most at risk gang members.
- 4.2 This report has been developed in response to the Board's quest to address antisocial behaviour in the city.
