MEMBERS' ALLOWANCES

1. What are members' allowances?

The Local Government and Housing Act 1989, the Local Government Act 2000 and associated regulations set out allowances which can be paid to Members. Before making or amending a Members Allowance Scheme, the Council must consider the recommendations of its Independent Remuneration Panel. The Council's current Members Allowances Scheme is set out on pages 7-10 of this booklet.

The Council has approved four allowances, which you can receive. These are:

- (a) basic allowance: this is a flat rate allowance available to all Members, which is £9,976.43 a year. It is intended to recognise the time you devote to your work and attendance at meetings. It also covers other incidental costs such as the use of your home and facilities.
- (b) special responsibility allowance: this allowance is paid to certain Members to recognise the special responsibilities that they have. It is subject to a number of conditions that are set out in the Scheme on pages 7-8.
- (c) travelling and subsistence allowance: any costs which you incur carrying out approved duties, whether by car, cycle or public transport, including refreshments in certain circumstances, can be reimbursed. Travelling allowance rates were amended at Council 20 January 2010 and took effect from 1 July 2010. Approved duties eligible for travel and subsistence allowance are set out on pages 13-14. The rates for these allowances are set out on page 12, and on the back of the travel and subsistence claim form.

Please ensure that all mileage claims and claims for subsistence are supported by a recent VAT receipt.

If you intend to claim travel allowance you will need to ensure that your car insurance covers any vehicle you use for official Council business and includes an indemnity to the Council.

- (d) dependant carer's allowance: this is an allowance of £6 an hour, up to a maximum of £50 a day, which can be claimed for actual costs incurred for childcare or dependant care services whilst carrying out approved duties. The approved duties for Dependant Carer's allowances are set out on pages 13-14. Claims must be supported by receipted accounts.
- (e) co-optee's allowance: this is a flat rate allowance of £500 a year available to independent members of the Council's Standards Committee.

The Basic and Special Responsibility Allowances are indexed by the average salary award for local government employees and the index will be applied to the allowance levels recommended for 2012/13.

If your entitlement to any allowance changes during the year, you will be paid pro-rata to the number of days you have been entitled to that allowance.

The formal Scheme adopted by the Council, which has to be published, is set out on pages 7-10. Each year, details of the basic, special responsibility, travelling and subsistence and dependant carer's allowances (where applicable) you have received also have to be published.

2. How do I claim?

Before any allowances can be paid you need to complete and return to us the Members' Allowances – Personal Details form and the Request for Payment by Bank Credit form.

You do not have to make a claim for basic or special responsibility allowances. These will be paid to you automatically on a monthly basis. You do have to claim for travel and subsistence and dependant carer's allowances.

You should send your forms to Constitutional Services. Every month we will let you know when you will need to let us have your claim forms. This is normally by the 4th of the following month. The final claim for the year should be submitted before the end of April of the following financial year.

3. What if I don't want to claim?

If you decide you don't want to claim any of the allowances, you must sign and let us have a notice foregoing your entitlement.

4. How do I get paid?

You will be paid by direct credit to your bank, normally on 25th of the month.

5. Will there be any effect on Income Tax or Social Security benefits?

You will have to pay income tax and national insurance on your allowances. These will be deducted at source. If you qualify for reduced National Insurance contributions then you must let us have the appropriate certificate. You can get this from your local Department for Work and Pensions Office; this normally applies to men over 65 and women over 60.

If you are receiving any benefits you should contact your local Department for Work and Pensions Office as soon as possible. Your benefits may be affected, even if you choose not to claim any Members' Allowances.

A booklet explaining the effect of Members' Allowances on income tax and benefits will be available in all Members' Rooms.

6. Where do I get claim forms from?

Supplies are available in the Members' Rooms, Constitutional Services or Members Secretarial Support (first floor Council House). Forms are also available electronically. Please email committee@derby.gov.uk for an electronic copy.

7. What about attendance at conferences and seminars?

You can claim Travel and Subsistence and Dependant Carers Allowances if you incur expenses in attending conferences and seminars which have not already been paid directly by the Council. The Council has agreed that expenditure for Members (and officers) attending conferences and seminars will be controlled through annual cash limits. Annual conferences will be regarded as commitments against the cash limit, with the balance being used for 'one-off' conferences. When the cash limit is exhausted, no more conferences will be approved for the remainder of the financial year. The operation of the cash limiting system is delegated to the Strategic Director of Resources.

8. Can I pay pension contributions on my allowances?

Yes, you can pay contributions, and receive benefits, on your Basic Allowance and, if applicable, your Special Responsibility Allowance, provided you have 'opted-in' to the Local Government Pension Scheme. The Pensions Division of Derbyshire County Council, which administers the Scheme on the City Council's behalf, will provide information to you separately.

9. Who can I contact if I have any queries?

If you have any queries about Members Allowances please contact Constitutional Services, telephone: 643654, email committee@derby.gov.uk

If you require advice about sickness or maternity benefits, please contact HR Pay and Administration Manager (Payroll), telephone: 01332 643514.
