

urpose/statement/reason for being...

E.G- MIP is designed to strengthen the effectiveness of individual's contribution to the Council's success.

g Policy

Purpose

Derby City Council is committed to helping employees achieve a work life balance as part of a wider commitment to the health and wellbeing of our employees. Ourflexible working policyis designed to help managers and employees consider the different options available for flexible working. It also allows managers to consider requests objectively and fairly, making sure that requests are only refused where there is a valid business reason.

DocumentControl

Implementation date
Author	Tina Holmes
Equality impactassessmentdate	Existing EIA still Valid
Version control	2.1
Revised/updated	April 2014 to reflect the Children and Families Bill 2014.
Reviewrequired

1. Policyapplication

1.1 Thispolicyapplies toall Council employeesexceptthose employed underthe delegatedpowersofGoverning bodies of community, voluntary controlled schools and trustschools.Governingbodiesoftheseschoolsarestronglyurged to adopt this policy for non-teaching staff within their delegated powers.

2. Principles

- 2.1 Eligible employees can apply for a permanent change to their terms and conditions of employment that relate to:
- the hourstheyarerequired towork
- thetimeswhen theyarerequiredto work
- where theyarerequired to work, which allowsfora request to workfromhome.
- 2.2 Employeesdo not have the right to change back to theirformer arrangement.
- 2.3 Employeesmusthave 26 weeks' continuousservice atthedateoftheirapplication. This includes employees who have TUPE transferred in, associated bodies and LEA schools but does notinclude previouscontinuousservice with otherlocalgovernmentbodies.
- 2.4 There are many types of flexible working that can be applied for including:
 - Part-time reduced hours, term time only working,
 - Job sharing
 - Flexi-time
 - Compressed hours
 - Annualised hours
 - Homeworking
- 2.5 Only oneapplication toworkflexiblycan be made in any 12 month period.
- 2.6 A requestcanonlybe refusedforthesereasons:
 - burdens ofadditionalcosts
 - detrimentaleffectonabilitytomeetservice users'demands
 - inabilityto reorganise workamongexistingemployees
 - inabilityto recruitadditional employees
 - detrimentalimpactonquality
 - detrimentalimpacton performance
 - notenoughworkduring the periodstheemployee proposestowork
 - planned structuralchanges.

Managersrefusing a request must state which of these eightreasons apply and include an explanation about why itapplies in the particular circumstances. The explanation must include keyfacts that are accurate and clearly relevant to the employee's application.

2.7 Employeescan withdrawtheirapplication at anystage duringtheprocessbycompleting the withdrawalformandsendingittotheirmanager.Themanagerwill confirmreceipt.

- 2.8 An employee will be treated aswithdrawingtheirapplication iftheydonotattendameeting morethanonceand donotprovide a reasonableexplanation.
- 2.9 Employeeswhowithdrawtheirapplication will notbeable tomake anotherapplicationfor12 months.
- 2.10 The law requires the consideration process for a flexible working request to be completed within three months of first receiving a request, including any appeal.

3.0 Theapplication process

- 3.1 See Appendix two for flowchart
 - 1 Employee completesrighttorequestflexible workingapplicationformandsendsto manager
 - 2 Manageracknowledges application and arrangesmeetingwith the employee to be held within 28 daysusing the appropriate invitation letter giving at least 5 normal working days' notice
 - 3 Managerand employee meettodiscussand considerapplication. Theemployeehas therightto be accompaniedbyawork colleague ora trade unionrepresentative.
 - 4 Managerinformsemployee of the decision within 14 daysof the meeting by completing the relevant section on the application form
- 3.2 Managersshould considercarefullyand seriouslywhetherthedesiredworkingpatterncan be accommodated within theneedsoftheservice. Wherever possible requests should be agreed or a suitable alternative offered. Where the request is part of a reasonable adjustment, managers should refer to the Disability Equality At Work Guidelines.
- 3.3 Thetimescales setoutin 3.1 canbe varied so long as the total time taken for whole of the process, including any appeal does not exceed three months.
- 3.4 Time limits areautomatically extended when the manager who would normally consider the application is absent when the application is made because of annual leave or sickleave. However, if the manager is likely to be off for more than two weeks then alternative arrangements should be made to make sure that the three month time limit is not exceeded.
- 3.5 Employees who do not attend ameeting must contact their managerassoon as possible to explain. The managershould then rearrange the meeting at a time and place convenient to both the employee and the manager.
- 3.6 If for some reason the request cannot be dealt with within three months themanagermustdiscuss the proposed new timescale and if agreed complete the relevant section of the application form. The application form should givedetailsofwhy additionaltime isrequested.Forexample:
 - themanagermayneed to see anotheremployee,who ison annualleave,aboutwhether theycould workthehoursnotcovered bytheemployeewho requested the newworking pattern
 - to accommodateatrialperiodforarevised working patternbefore afinaldecision is made
 - the employee maybe onannualleave
 - the employee maybe awaysick.
- 3.7 An extension beyond three months must be agreed by the employee. If the employee does not agree to an extension beyond three months any decision will be based on the information available at that time.

4 Appeal

4.1 Employees have the right of appeal against the outcome of a flexible working request. Appeals must be made within 7 days using the appeals policy.

Please see theappealspages on iDerby for additional information.

4.2 Thisisthefinal stage of the internal flexibleworking process.

5 Supportandguidance

- 5.1 Afull description of the process including guidance, supportive information and documentation ison the intranet under Human Resources:
- 5.2 Information on the procedures for job sharing and work-life balance are also available on iDerby or from your line manager.

6 Roles and responsibilities

6.1 Theroles and responsibilities of keystakeholders are summarised in appendix1.

Appendix1

Chief Executive & Chief Officers, Tiers 1 & 2	Head of Service Tier 3	Managers	Employee	Human Resources
Everyemployee mustuse theprocedureandguidance oniDerby
Fairness andequality
Toensurethispolicy is implemented in afair,consistent and non- discriminatorymanne	Toprovide reasonable adjustmentsasrequired.	Toprovide reasonable adjustmentsasrequired.	Tonotifymanagersofreasonable adjustmentsrequired.	Provide advice and guidance to managersand employees.
	To consider all requests in a fair and consistent manner.	To consider all requests in a fair and consistent manner.
Generaloperationofthe	scheme
Toensuremanagersca rryout theirresponsibilities.	Tofollowthe procedural guidelinesandtimescal essetout in section 3ofthepolicy.	Tofollowthe procedural guidelinesandtimescalesseto ut in section 3ofthepolicy.	Tofollowthe procedural guidelinesandtimescalessetout in section 3ofthepolicy.	Provide advice and guidance to managersand employees.
	Toprovide Human Resources with appropriatedocument ation forrecordretention.	Toprovide Human Resources with appropriatedocumentation forrecordretention.	To provide managers with relevant information	Tokeeprelevantrecordsoft he application on theemployee's personalfile.		