Items for Discussion

20/06 Ambulance Trust Presentation

The Commission received a presentation from the East Midlands Ambulance Trust Director of Operations, Dave Whiting on the trusts new role and responsibilities.

The Commission discussed with the Trust's representatives procedures for 999 calls, air ambulance provision, their work with the fire and police services, the influence of traffic calming measures on the ambulance service's response times and the policy for treating people with mental health issues.

Resolved to note the presentation with thanks and to ask that the East Midlands Ambulance Trust update the Commission on their work on a regular basis.

21/06 Review of Home Care Services and Charges

The Commission received a report from the Director Corporate and Adult Social Services which outlined the work that had been done on the Council's Home Care Services for Older People as part of a Best Value Review.

The Commission was asked to consider carrying out a review into Home Care Services.

It was noted that a meeting had been arranged for 29 September 2006 to discuss the programme and timetable for the review.

Councillor Skelton suggested that the LGA, the National ? Board, Derby Homes Consultation Group, Southern Derbyshire Pensions Association, Disabled Peoples Advisory Committee and Joseph Rowntree Trust be invited to contribute to the review.

Councillor Webb suggested that Independent Providers and Disability Direct should also be invited to contribute to the review.

Councillor Dhindsa said that the Commission needed to be cautious that they did not simply replicate the Best Value Review.

The Director Corporate and Adult Social Services advised the Commission that they needed to be aware that the number of households receiving Home Care had been reduced and yet the number hours of Home Care provision had increased.

Resolved to

- 1) carry out a review into Home Care Services and Charges
- 2) and to ask Mahroof Hussain to set up a draft programme in consultation with the Chair/Vice Chair.

22/06 Learning Disabilities Integration

The Commission received a report from the Director Corporate and Adult Social Services.

Councillor Webb expressed disappointment that the budgets had not been able to be integrated. The Senior Assistant Director – Adult Services informed the Commission that there would be some level of integration.

Resolved to

- 1) note the report
- 2) and state that the Commission would like to see improved outcomes for people with Learning Difficulties as a result of the report.

23/06 Modernising Day and Residential Services for People with Learning Disabilities

The Commission received a report from the Director Corporate and Adult Services on the Consultation on Modernisation of Day and Residential Services for People with Learning Difficulties.

The Commission noted that suggestions to extend the current building provision as suggested in the consultation were being explored.

Pat Hill queried whether any action was being taken regarding the double payments for people who received 24 hour care and attended a day centre. It was noted that nothing was being done immediately as it was often the case that the care providers in this situation often charged the least and therefore there needed to be further investigation into these cases.

Councillor Webb asked whether the buildings would be sold if provision changed. The director Corporate and Adult Services stated that the site was unlikely to achieve any significant capital receipt however he recognised that funding would need to be secured in order for services to be improved.

Resolved to

- 1) note the report
- 2) request that any capital receipts be ring fenced for this service provision

24/06 Substantial Development/Reconfiguration of Services

The Commission received a report from the Director Corporate and Adult Services regarding the local definition of substantial variation or the development in NHS Health Services.

The Commission considered the draft consultation form presented to them in the report.

Councillor Webb stressed that he wished to see forward planning and said he felt that change should be substantial.

Resolved to note the report and approve the Consultation form.
