

DERBY CITY COUNCIL

SOCIAL CARE AND HEALTH COMMISSION

28 November 2005

Report of the Director of Corporate Services

Resignation of Sir Michael Raymond from the Commission

RECOMMENDATION

- 1.1 To note the resignation of Sir Michael Raymond and thank him for his contribution to the work of the Commission.

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

- 2.1 Sir Michael Raymond has submitted his resignation from the Social Care and Health Commission with immediate effect due to persistent ill health. Sir Michael was one of the two people appointed by the Council in September 2004 to develop closer relationship with the Public and Patient Involvement Forum. He was re-appointed by the Council at 19 July meeting when his term expired at the end of the municipal year.
- 2.2 Members are may wish to thank Sir Michael for his input to the work of the Commission.
- 2.3 Members may take this opportunity and consider whether they wish to appoint another member from the PPI Forum to take his place or alternatively, identify gaps in the Commission's expertise and appoint someone with specific skills to support the work of the Commission.
