Non-Key Decisions

15/10 Homefields Primary School Expansion – Proposal For Consultation

The Cabinet Member considered a report from the Strategic Director for Children and Young People which stated that Local Authorities have a statutory duty to ensure that sufficient school places are available to meet local needs, and that pupil projections are indicating an increase in pupil numbers.

It added that in Chellaston there was a very close match between demand for primary pupil places and the number of places available and a proposal to formally consult on expanding Homefields Primary School from a 210 to 315 place primary school from September 2013 was considered.

Resolved to approve formal consultation on a proposal to expand Homefields Primary School from a 210 place school to a 315 place school from September 2013
