31/09 Routine Maintenance Works in the City's Highway Network

The Council Cabinet considered a report on Routine Maintenance Works in the City's Highway Network. The report recommended a course of action for dealing with the problems that had arisen in undertaking and financing routine repair works on the city's highways, including the reduction of a backlog of repairs.

Decision

To approve the Action Plan, included in the report at Appendix 3, in line with the funding that was already available and which may additionally become available in the coming months.
