

Health Summit- making sense of it all

SUMMARY

- 1.1 A joint event is being organised for late July with Derbyshire County's Overview and Scrutiny Committee which will outline the major structural changes taking place in NHS service, explain the role and process of statutory health scrutiny committees and seek ideas for establishing principles of joint working between scrutiny and the NHS.

RECOMMENDATION

- 2.1 To consider and note the proposals to hold a joint event with Derbyshire County Council's Overview and Scrutiny Committee.

REASONS FOR RECOMMENDATION

- 3.1 This will be of mutual interest to council members and health bodies.

SUPPORTING INFORMATION

- 4.1 We are working jointly with Derbyshire County's OSC to organise a health summit which will outline the major changes taking place in NHS service, explain the role and process of statutory health scrutiny committee and explore ideas for setting principles of working between scrutiny and the NHS. The event is being planned for late July depending on the availability of the presenters and senior officers and health bodies including the PCT cluster and Clinical Commissioning Groups.
- 4.2 We are expecting approximately 80 people to attend and the cost of running this event will be shared between Derby City Council and Derbyshire County Council.

OTHER OPTIONS CONSIDERED

- 5.1 None.
