Members discussed the possibility of the person who supported the Derbyshire SACRE also supporting the Derby SACRE. The former RE Adviser to the SACRE, Graham Falgate, was also suggested by Members to provide future support. Members agreed that the RE Adviser to the SACRE should first approach Graham Falgate to take on the role.

Resolved to agree that the RE Adviser to the SACRE should approach the Former RE to the SACRE, Graham Falgate, to again take on the role.

35/13 SACRE Membership and Vacancies

The clerk to the SACRE reported that he was still waiting to hear from four Members as to whether they wanted to continue as Members of the SACRE and that once he heard from them he would contact all nominating bodies to confirm their representatives.

Members discussed the programme of school visits that had been carried out and stressed the importance of two-way communication between the SACRE and the schools. 38/13 Locally Agreed Syllabus

The RE Adviser to the SACRE provided an update on the imminent review of the locally agreed syllabus for RE. It was reported that the last review was very extensive and also expensive, an operation that Derby City Council would be unable to replicate. It was further reported that a number of SACRE's across the country would be in the same position.

It was reported that the Derbyshire SACRE had brought in expert help to conduct their review of the locally agreed syllabus. Members agreed that it was crucial to get the review done correctly, in the light of comments made in the recent Ofsted report on RE – realising the potential. Members agreed that the RE Adviser to the SACRE should approach the former RE Adviser to the SACRE, Graham Falgate, to see if he would be available to act as an expert adviser.

It was agreed that the RE Adviser to the SACRE should attempt to obtain an electronic copy of the current locally agreed syllabus from Graham Falgate.

Members noted that as there was a statutory requirement to have a locally agreed syllabus and as schools had been asking for a copy of the current one, it was agreed that a notice should be put in the school circular to inform schools where they could obtain a copy and also that a review was imminent.

It was agreed that Members, who represented faith groups, would check the details of their own faith in the syllabus and forward any proposed changes to the RE Adviser to the SACRE. Members felt that, as well as providing information on faiths, it would also be important for the syllabus to encourage thoughts about faith; what it is and why it is, etc.

Members noted that it would be useful to determine whether the faiths groups represented in the city had changed since the last review. It was agreed that it would also be important to take account of the national picture.

It was agreed that a report be brought to the next meeting of the Board, either by the RE Adviser to the SACRE or Graham Falgate, detailing costs of the review and providing advice on how the review should be conducted.

Resolved:

- 1. to agree that the RE Adviser to the SACRE should approach the former RE Adviser to the SACRE, Graham Falgate, to see if he would be available to act as an expert adviser for the review of the locally agreed syllabus for RE;

At the last meeting of the SACRE, Members resolved that examples of good practice, as identified in the Ofsted report on RE – realising the potential, be considered at the next meeting of the SACRE. Members agreed to defer the item until the next meeting of the SACRE.

Alison Brown reported to Members that the Review of Religious Education in England, published by the Religious Education Council of England and Wales, was an important document and should be considered along with the Ofsted Report on RE. It was also reported that both documents should be looked at in conjunction with the Locally Agreed Syllabus.

- 1. to defer the item until the next meeting of the SACRE; and
- 2. resolved to agree that the Review of Religious Education in England be considered, along with the Ofsted report on RE, at the next meeting of the SACRE.

40/13 National Updates

Members discussed the role of NASACRE in lobbying political parties. Lucy Care agreed to contact NASACRE to determine whether political parties had been lobbied in this way.

It was reported that the visit had been very enjoyable and the children asked some very interesting questions. Peter wished to pass his thanks on to Laura Connolly of The Open Centre. It was reported that schools were required to write to parents with the details of any planned school visits and that this, unfortunately, sometimes resulted in negative comments from parents in relation to the planned destination.

Resolved:

- 1. to note the update; and
- 2. to agree that visits be included along with Local Updates at future meetings of the SACRE.
