22/07 Working for the Council – Employment Statistics

The Forum considered a report on employment stats 2006.07. Mohammed Sharief thanked the officers for the report but made the point that it made clear that the Pakistani community was still under-represented within the council's workforce, as it had been for many years. He also pointed out that the Council was now under a statutory duty to address the problem. A representative from the REC - Kirt Mistry said that the council needed to set challenging targets to correct under-representation. It was agreed that M Sharief and Rod Wood would meet to discuss what could be done to address the problem.

Resolved to note the report.

23/07 BBC Big Screen

The Forum received a presentation from Louise Angell and Hannah Meredith from the BBC on the Big Screen and the types of things that could be shown on it. Members of the Forum were encouraged to contact Louise or Hannah to get advice on the criteria for items to be shown or to book slots for events.

Resolved to note the presentation.
