Non-Key Decisions

05/10 School mergers

The Cabinet Member considered a report from the Strategic Director for Children and Young People. Following Cabinet's decision on 2 June 2009 to approve a policy of promoting school mergers where possible and appropriate, it was reported that pending headship vacancies in Redwood Infant and Primary Schools presented such an opportunity.

It was recommended that the Cabinet Member agree to a six-week consultation on the proposals commencing in September 2010. It was confirmed that ward members would be included in the consultation.

Resolved to proceed with a six-week consultation on a proposed merger of Redwood Infant and Junior Schools, with the consultation commencing in September 2010.
