

SENT BY E-MAIL

It is now frightening to walk between the Broadway pub and the Mileash Lane pedestrian crossing of the A6 because 3 lanes of traffic force large vehicles travelling north too close to the very narrow pavement on the Broadway side of the road. Is there no chance of road widening on the other side of the road?- perhaps at the expense of one tree. Or, is this last stretch of the bus lane really essential?

Bernice and Brian Read, Windley Crescent, Darley Abbey
bernice.read@ntlworld.com