47/12 Outcome of Personal Alcohol Licence Consultation

The Committee considered a report from the Strategic Director of Neighbourhoods considering the outcome of personal alcohol licence consultation.

Members raised concern as to the personal licence renewals process due to start in 2015. The officer reported that she understood that the Government had abolished the proposal to abolish personal licences, but no information had been provided on the renewals process. This would be circulated to Members for their information.

Resolved to note the information contained in the response document published by the Government following the consultation on the future of personal licences.

48/12 Relaxation of Licensing Hours to Serve Alcohol during the FIFA World Cup 2014 Consultation

The Committee considered a report from the Strategic Director of Neighbourhoods considering the outcome of the FIFA World Cup 2014 consultation.

Resolved to note the response submitted by the Council to the Government consultation on the relaxation of licensing alcohol during the FIFA World Cup 2014.
