Influence	Communication and engagement	The Plan has been developed over several years and a great deal of formal and informal public consultation. Addressing sustainable development and climate change has been a major factor throughout.	+4
	Wider influence	The Plan will help meet certain mineral needs across the UK and beyond and Minerals Planning Authorities are required to work together to identify these cross boundary issues.	+2
	Working with communities	Communities have been consulted as the plan has developed, though they do not have a right to prevent development if that is the most appropriate course of action following assessment of alternative options.	+2
	Working with partners	The Plan has been developed in consultation with a wide range of partners.	+3
