Others - not in Conservation Area

Application No. & Location: DER/07/15/00932- Site of 84 Bridge Street, Derby, DE1 3LA (The Ram PH)
Proposal: Demolition of public house and erection of five storey building - nine apartments (use class C3) and cafe/public house (use class A3/A4) at ground floor level
Expiry Date: 22/09/2015
Listed Building: LOC

The Committee resolved to recommend refusal on the following grounds:

- 1) They felt it wasn't necessary to demolish a building which is locally listed as it is a good example of an early public house therefore it has historical importance.
- 2) The application is out of scale and detracted from the streetscene
- 3) Recommended creative reuse of the site which would include refurbishment of the existing building and further suggesting replacement of the single storey building with a larger building behind the public house which would not detract from the streetscene.

- 2) Details needed of the proposed staircase from cellar to ground floor and ground to first floor.
- 3) On the first floor the Committee wished to retain the existing ornate door between the red room and the landing adjacent to existing staircase and advise that it is left open or locked rather than blocking it.
- 4) One of the blocked masonry openings proposed the Committee recommended that the height and width are revised so that the down stand is retained and stud walls at either side are retained.

The Conservation Officer reported to this meeting that the applicant had taken on board their suggestions. In order to meet the planning decision making time scales and to avoid delay to the development it was not possible to return this application back to CAAC and that the Committee's comments would be taken into account by the decision maker in arriving at a decision and with suitable conditions would be applied where appropriate.

The Committee discussed the proposal at length, each Member offered their views on the proposal.

The conversion of the farm and outbuildings was applauded by the Committee, however the Members resolved to recommend the following:

- 3) The impact of the style, size and character of the new buildings would have on the conservation area should be taken into consideration
- 4) An above ground archaeological assessment of the field should be undertaken
- 5) Roof-lights should be random rather than regulatory.
